Previous Collaborative Finance Events

2023

CoFi 1 in Austria brought together blockchain and community currency projects in a vibrant intersection of ideas. Held over a week at the Commons Hub, it attracted around 80 participants. The morning sessions were thoughtfully curated to encourage contributions from as many voices as possible. One notable outcome was the creation of the #Mycofi concept, marking #CoFi as a meaningful platform for collaboration, discourse and innovation.

2024

CoFi 2 faced a last-minute relocation, transforming into an intimate retreat with 30 beds and space for day visitors. The agenda was set day by day, allowing for a dynamic and curated conversation. By keeping costs low, we were able to sponsor several attendees, ensuring broader participation.

CoFi Berlin followed as a casual two-day event, primarily engaging the web3 community in Berlin.

CoFi Liège took on a more formal tone, hosting a two-day gathering for community currency and web3 projects. The focus was on monetary diversity and collaborative finance, bringing together complementary currency initiatives from across Belgium and the Netherlands—many of whom met for the first time.

2025

Looking ahead to CoFi 3, we aim to expand the concept of collaborative finance to intersect with other movements, such as climate resilience, regenerative finance, social housing, ecovillages, makerspaces, and volunteering.
